

Christopher Hossenlopp

3465 Big Ridge Road, Spencerport, NY 14559

(585) 506-6590

chris@chrishossenlopp.com

www.chrishossenlopp.com

Objective

A cooperative education position that will require the use and expansion of skills related to the field of software engineering. Available Summer 2010.

Summary of Qualifications

Languages proficient with: Java, C, PHP, HTML, JavaScript

Languages familiar with: C#, C++, Ruby

Languages presently studying: Python, Haskell

Technologies: CVS, SVN, Mercurial, SQL, Apache, CSS, jQuery

IDEs: Eclipse, Visual Studio

Education

Rochester Institute of Technology, Rochester, NY

Bachelor of Science in Software Engineering, Expected May 2012 (Junior)

GPA: 3.214 PFOS GPA: 3.644

Dean's List: Fall 2008-Winter 2009, Winter 2010

Relevant courses: Computer Science II-IV, Software Engineering (SE 361), Personal Software Engineering, Engineering of Software Subsystems (SE 362), Software Process and Project Management, Principles of Concurrent Systems, Formal Methods

Current courses: Operating Systems I, Principles of Information Systems, Software Usability

Work Experience

Lenel Systems International (June 2009 – February 2010) – Rochester, NY

Web Developer Co-op

Worked on the new Lenel website. Launched in January 2010.

Wrote custom modules for the Drupal CMS.

Used ASP.NET Web Services to integrate the site with Lenel's CRM database.

Full-time co-op until November 2009, continued part-time until February 2010.

Activities

Society of Software Engineers at RIT

Co-Director of Technology (March 2009 – Present)

Maintain the SSE server, slideshow machine, website, and mailing lists.

Volunteer Mentor (September 2008 – Present)

Maintain the lab environment.

Provide tutoring to anyone requesting help.

Assist the lead mentor with running review sessions.

Honors and Awards

Eagle Scout, Troop 165 in Spencerport, NY

For a list of projects that I have worked on please visit www.chrishossenlopp.com/projects